

Two Robb Resident Tutors attend national Leadership course

In 2019 Emelia Inwood was one of our two Robb Foundation Leader Scholars. In 2020 she has been appointed as Deputy Senior Academic Resident Tutor. Late last year she and Amelia Ewart (appointed 2020 Deputy Senior Pastoral Resident Tutor) were selected by UNE to attend the National Association of Australian University Colleges annual conference in Melbourne.

The girls attended workshops that covered inclusivity, life in college, mental health, and leadership. "It was a fantastic opportunity to learn how other colleges conduct their events and fundraising" said Emelia. "We want to bring some of these ideas and strategies back to improve Robb".

"For example the leadership camp stemmed an idea to create a Facebook page to combine and keep academic and pastoral care information. Students can gain access to a library of support information and easier access to regular posts and immediate topics that is vital and relevant for them". They also wish to promote the Senior Common Room more effectively to Robb students through this Facebook page.

Pictures show Emelia on the left and Amelia on the right.

From this course-experience Emelia and Amelia were able to improve their interpersonal skills, made lifelong friends with those who share common interests from different backgrounds and develop as leaders both in their own personal academic endeavours and in their duties as leaders of Robb College.

We congratulate the girls and wish them a great year and future.