Fresh Country Farms Australia

Fresh Country Farms of Australia is a horticultural sector investment business owned by Canadian pension fund manager PSP Investments. The business primarily invests as a landlord, partnering with Australasian horticultural businesses to provide the capital and expertise necessary to grow their domestic and export production.

It commenced operations in 2017 and is based in Sydney and sits alongside PSP's other investment platforms in the nut, cotton, dairy and dryland cropping sectors. FCFA has investments in almond, avocado, mango, wine grapes, table grapes and citrus farms.
